

John Mazaroli

John is a fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants and an Authorised Representative of Count Financial Limited.

Earlier in his career, John gained commercial accounting experience as a cost accountant for medium sized manufacturing businesses.

In 2005 John successfully completed financial planning specialist training with the Securities Institute and is also a graduate of the Enterprise Development programme run by Australian Business.

John has been involved in Public Practice for over 35 years having been a partner at MCS Partners on the Central Coast for 27 years before joining the Robson Group as a Consultant in July 2007.

John has extensive experience in Financial Services, advising on all facets of small business and personal financial planning including business development, tax planning, superannuation, investment and estate and succession planning.

John's interests currently lie in working with individuals and small businesses regarding superannuation funds, financial and estate planning.